

Checkmate

Reference checks made easy

Overview

Checkmate is a fully automated online reference checking software that collects comprehensive employee reference information. It is an enjoyable and effortless User experience and designed to ensure a seamless journey from start to finish.

Checkmate starts with just a few clicks, the candidate nominates the appropriate referees via our mobile optimised and secure link. The system automatically contacts the referee and from there the referee completes the check from the comfort of any device, at any time. No more time zone issues to worry about.

You as a Checkmate client have complete control. You can build your very own customised questionnaire or choose from our library of professionally designed and industry-specific questions. Your dashboard allows you to monitor the progress of all your checks in one easy place. But don't worry, we do all the chasing. Checkmate will automatically follow up any delayed or unresponsive referees and notify you of completions or any issues.

We have added a unique feature that gives you the option to brand the checks as your own and redirect referees to your career site upon completion thereby unlocking new sources of talent and customers.

Checkmate utilises a unique fraud detection system that actively monitors the process and will alert you (and us) should anything be amiss, such as dubious email addresses. It also requires referees to verify their identity using LinkedIn or their professional email.

Once its all done the full report automatically comes back to you for your consideration and hiring decision. This is usually within 24-48 hours, depending on referee response times. You can also then share, download or archive the checks, keeping it all tidy and in one place.
