Automated AI screening wherever candidates find you.

Cast a wide net at the top of the recruiting funnel by engaging every visitor on your hiring pages, social media, and job boards. Then qualify individuals effortlessly with Humanly's remarkable, embeddable multi-language chatbot.

Engage the right candidate at the right time.

Greatly reduce the time it takes to identify and engage top candidates and jump into the conversation at precisely the right time—everytime.

Spend more face time with top candidates by automating all of your repetitive screening tasks.

Humanly engages candidates, collecting and storing data, until you're ready to meet them. Including contacting and interviewing their references and storing responses in their candidate profile.
