

Who We Are

Compass Business Solutions is a boutique agency that drives organizational performance with proven human resource and business strategies. Our team of elite business professionals host significant experience in a variety of industries and roles, including human resources, legal, education, information technology, retail, marketing and design. We pride ourselves on being agile and we have the bench strength to meet the specific and unique needs of each client. And we are proudly owned and operated by women.

What We Do

Compass' services encompass all aspects of the employee life cycle. We deliver solutions on both a project basis and through Compass HR OnCall, our outsourced human resources offering. Additionally, Compass supports organizations in need of unique business solutions outside the human resources field.

How We Work

We connect with clients to build trust and understand their needs. We are experts at the craft of human resources. We provide custom solutions as unique as the clients we serve. We care about people and the impact of our work.

Who We Have Supported

We have had the pleasure to work with a variety of organizations from start-ups to Fortune 500 companies. Our client list is diverse and ranges from health care, retail and life sciences to professional sports, education and construction.
