Why myERISA Wrap

Legal Advice, Evolved

myHRcounsel™ was born out of decades of employment law experience and basic computing skills. We decided to make Human Resources digital, and provide a resource that delivers legally backed answers to any HR question at a price that is affordable and predictable. And we'll do it in minutes/hours versus days or weeks!

Many companies believe, erroneously, that the 400-page plan document employees receive from the company's health insurance provider is all ERISA requires an employer provide to their employees. Unfortunately, that is not the case and under ERISA's laws, the penalties for failing to provide a compliant SPD/Wrap document to employees accrue daily. Let the attorneys at myHRcounsel draft you a legally-compliant SPD/Wrap document: it's easy, it's convenient and it protects your company!
